The Gathering - We gather in silence.

Opening Prayer

Remembering

The names of the fallen are read by members of the cadets.

A member of the British Legion says:

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
we will remember them.

All We will remember them.

The Last Post

The Silence

The Reveille

The Kohima Epitaph

When you go home
tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow
we gave our today.

Wreaths are laid – after a short time in silence, wreaths will begin to be laid and continue to be laid during the hymn.

Hymn

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above
entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love.

The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
that lays upon the altar, the dearest and the best;

the love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
the love that makes undaunted, the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;

we may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;

and soul by soul and silently, her shining bounds increase,
and her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

Prayer of Commemoration offered by Father Jerry Sacred Heart Catholic Church

Ever-living God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples
and establish harmony among nations,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All

Amen

Bible Reading

Psalm 8:1-4, 9

read by Revd Andy Jefferson, St Peter & St Paul's

Address

offered by Revd Tim Diaper, Kings Church Flitwick

Hymn

Guide me, O thou great Redeemer,
pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
hold me with thy powerful hand.
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven,
feed me now and evermore, feed me now and evermore.

Open now the crystal fountain,
where the healing waters flow.
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
lead me all my journey through.
Strong Deliverer, strong Deliverer, ever be my strength and shield, ever be my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
bid my anxious fears subside.
Death of death, and hell's Destruction,
land me safe on Canaan's side.
Songs of praises, songs of praises
I will ever sing to you, I will ever sing to you.

Prayers

led by Angela Brydon, representative of Flitwick Methodist Church

To the words:

May God give peace.

Please respond:

God give peace.

Lord's Prayer

All Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Blessing

Offered by Revd Claire, St Peter & St Paul's Church

Go forth into the world in peace;
be of good courage; hold fast to that which is good;
render to no one evil for evil; strengthen the faint-hearted;
support the weak; help the afflicted; honour everyone;
and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

The National Anthem

God save our gracious King,
long live our noble King,
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
happy and glorious,
long to reign over us,
God save the King!
